The 'unforgettable' of the trip:

- The charm of Algiers, with its kasbah, mosques and white French buildings
- The 'pearl of M'Zab', the oasis of Ghardaia, with its markets and 'pyramid' mosque
- The Assekrem, 'the end of the world' in the Tamacheq language, from where to admire an unforgettable sunrise
- The hermitage of Charles de Foucauld, at an altitude of about 2,800 metres in the Hoggar Mountains
- Meeting the Tuareg, the 'blue men' around Tamanrasset and Djanet
- The Tadrart, an incredible corner of the Sahara desert on the border with Niger
- The 'fairy chimneys' of Moul N'Aga and the red dunes of Tin Merzouga
- The magnificent rock art sites, including La Vache qui Pleure

ALGERIA

Day 1: Friday 08 November

Flight to Algiers (ALG)

Flight to Algiers, clearance of formalities and meeting with the Kanaga Africa Tours staff, who will arrange transfer to Hotel ST or similar. In the afternoon, first visits in ALGIERS: the Martyrs' Monument (Makam Echaid) and the Jardin d'Essai, a public garden created by the French in 1832 as a greenhouse where they experimented with growing plants and flowers from all the colonies. Overnight stay in a double room with services.

Day 2: Saturday 09 November

Algiers (ALG)/Flight/Ghardaia (GHA)

Breakfast at the hotel and visit of ALGERI (from the Arabic El Djezair), declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site, with its whitewashed houses, overlooking the Mediterranean and surrounded by verdant, fertile hills. This historic city was first the most powerful of the corsair bases in Barbary in the time of the pirate Barbarossa, then dominated by the Ottomans for three centuries, and later a residential centre during the French colonial period. We will begin with a stroll through the medina of ALGERI, built on the ruins of ancient Icosium: we will wander through the labyrinthine alleyways of the kasbah, most of which dates back to the 16th century, and admire the numerous mosques (exterior) and historic residences known as dar (exterior). We will then continue along the waterfront, where the architectural imprint of the French period is clearly visible, with large tree-lined avenues, arcades, and elegant buildings. Seafood lunch in a restaurant. Transfer to the airport in time for the Air Algérie flight to Ghardaia. Upon arrival, transfer to Hotel Les deux tours or similar. Dinner and overnight in a double room with services.

Welcome to Algeria!

Day 3-4: from Sunday 10 November to Monday 11 November

Ghardaia

Breakfast at the hotel. Days are dedicated to visiting the pentapolis of GHARDAIA, the 'pearl of M'Zab', declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Its oasis is about 10 km wide and includes the historical towns of Beni Isguen, Melika, Bou Noura and El Atteuf, all situated on a hillock. These towns were founded from the 11th century onwards by the Ibadites, who turned away from orthodox Islam and moved to this rugged and barren territory. Today Ghardaia is the centre of trade for the entire Algerian Sahara, which is why it will be an unforgettable experience to visit its souk and the Marché à la Criée (auction market) of BENI ISGUEN, where you can buy the renowned, colourful, locally produced carpets. We will also visit the great mosque, with the appearance of a fortress and characterised by its pyramid-shaped minaret, typical of mosques in the region, and the palm grove with its ingenious water distribution system. Lunch in a restaurant, dinner and overnight stay in a hotel.

Day 5: Tuesday 12 November

Ghardaia (GHA)/Flight/Tamanrasset (TMR)

Breakfast at the hotel and end of visits to the Ibadite pentapolis. If time permits, excursion to EL GOLEA, famous for its fort and the tomb of Father Charles de Foucaould. Lunch and dinner in a restaurant or hotel. Transfer to the airport in time for the Air Algerie flight to Tamanrasset. On arrival, accommodation at the Hotel Khoja or similar, overnight in a double room with services.

Day 6-7: from Wednesday 13 November to Thursday 14 November

Tamanrasset/Assekrem/Tamanrasset

After breakfast, we put on our tagelmoust (Tuareg turban) and leave "Tam" to venture out in a 4x4 to the HOGGAR mountains, among which stands out ASSEKREM, which means "the end of the world" in the language of the Tuareg, one of the highest peaks in the massif at around 2,800 metres, a magical place that seems far removed from any form of civilisation. Picnic lunch in the guelta of Afilal, where 'moustached' fish can be observed. Through a lunar landscape of metallic colours, where we will be able to meet the Kel Ahggar Tuareg, we will arrive at the refuge where we will spend the night in simple dormitories with spartan communal bathrooms. From here we will hike (about 1 hour each way) to the CHARLES DE FOUCAULD HERMITAGE, built in 1.911 by this personage who, after exuberant worldly experiences and a period in the French army in North Africa, became first an explorer of the Moroccan mountains, and then a priest who founded the order of the Little Brothers of Jesus, retiring to the desert and dedicating his life to extreme frugality and prayer, as well as to the creation of a Tamacheq (Tuareg language)-French dictionary. Today there are still a few monks in the hermitage, whom we will meet, who celebrate mass every morning in the sober chapel. From this vantage point, we will admire the sunset and sunrise over the Atakor massif, exciting moments that will be difficult to forget. The following day, after breakfast at the hut, we will descend towards Tamanrasset with a stop for a picnic lunch at the Tahabort spring. On arrival, settle into the hotel, time at leisure. Dinner and overnight stay in a double room with services.

Day 8: Friday 15 November

Ghardaia (GHA)/Flight/Tamanrasset (TMR)

Breakfast at the hotel and end of visits on TAMANRASSET. Transfer to the airport in time for the Air Algerie flight to Djanet. Lunch box lunch. Departure by 4x4 to the SAHARA DESERT where we will begin our visit with the most famous rock art site in the area at TAGHARGHART, that of La Vache qui Pleure (the weeping cow), a work of some 6,000 years ago depicting three long-horned cattle with tears streaming from their eyes. Continuation to the ERG ADMER. Dinner prepared by our cook and overnight stay in double igloo tents.

Day 9-13: from Saturday 16 November to Wednesday 20 November

Tadrart Desert

Early morning flight to Djanet, on arrival rooms at disposal at the Hotel Grotte des Ambassadeurs or similar, overnight stay. Breakfast at the hotel and departure for the desert. Days dedicated to the exploration of TADRART, described as "the most beautiful desert in the world", a fascinating corner towards the border with the Niger, against a backdrop of dunes ranging from yellow to orange and rocks shaped by erosion to create imaginative and bizarre shapes. We will visit IN DJAREN with its cliffs decorated with rock carvings and paintings, the labyrinth of 'fairy chimneys' at MOUL N'AGA, the famous red dunes of TIN MERZOUGA and the white dunes of ERG ADMER. In addition to the spectacular landscapes, we will meet families of NOMADI TUAREG, with whom we can exchange greetings and enjoy the famous desert tea together. Breakfasts, lunches and dinners at the camp prepared by our cook, overnight stays in double igloo tents.

Day 14: Thursday 21 November

Tadrart/Djanet (DJA)/Flight/Algiers (ALG)

Breakfast at the camp early in the morning and departure for the oasis of Djanet. Shower in a hotel and, a short walk from the airport, we visit the rock art site of TAGHARGHART, the site of La Vache qui Pleure (the weeping cow), a work of some 6,000 years ago depicting three long-horned cattle with tears streaming from their eyes, and a circular pre-Islamic tomb. Transfer to the airport in time for the Air Algerie flight to Algiers. Lunch box. Arrival in Algiers and transfer to Hotel ST or similar and overnight stay in a double room with services.

Day 15: Friday 22 November

Algiers (ALG)/Return flight

Breakfast at the hotel and transfer to the airport in time for the return flight. End of services.

* The travel itinerary may be subject to variations, beyond our control, as the Algerian government reserves the right to close and open certain desert areas without prior notice, as well as internal flight schedules may be changed by the Air Algérie company.
